

PUBLIC POLICY PARTNERS

Meghaen Dell'Artino is the Managing Partner at Public Policy Partners, LLC. She has over 16 years of experience in the political process in Arizona, as well as grassroots coordination, crisis management and campaign consulting. Prior to her opening her own consulting firm, which she merged with Public Policy Partners, LLC in 2015, she was the Vice President of Government Affairs for the Arizona Association of Realtors®, where she managed the Government Affairs department, their state legislative efforts, and independent expenditure campaigns. Previously, she was Arizona Corporation Commissioner Bob Stump's Policy Advisor. While serving as his Policy Advisor, she gained a vast amount of knowledge in regulatory issues affecting energy, water and telecommunication. She is equipped with diverse expertise including, but not limited to: regulatory policy, tax policy, health care, energy policy, education, technology, pharmaceuticals, telecommunication, homebuilding industry, real estate industry, and economic development. She has worked on national, state, county and local candidate campaigns as well as statewide initiatives providing political and media support.

Rob Dalager joined Public Policy Partners in August of 2015. He brings with him a wealth of experience dealing with government from the inside and the outside. Spending the last 23 years working with and for government, Mr. Dalager has acquired a long list of connections that easily allow him to serve client needs in almost any area of state and local government. Mr. Dalager was a shareholder with the law firm of Gallagher & Kennedy, P.A. from 2007 to 2015. There, he practiced in the area of government relations and represented a variety of corporate and governmental entities before the Arizona State Legislature, the executive branch and agencies, various cities and counties. In addition, Mr. Dalager advised clients in the area of campaign finance and election law, including advice and oversight of various candidate, issue and political action committees. Prior to joining Gallagher & Kennedy, P.A., Mr. Dalager worked as the Director of Operations for the Arizona State Senate for approximately ten years. While at the Senate, he supervised all staff, advised the Senate on policy issues, and provided the Senate majority with legal advice. For three years before that, he worked for Governor Symington as the Director of the Governor's Regulatory Review Council. Mr. Dalager holds a juris doctor from Creighton University and a B.S. in Business from Arizona State University. He has served on numerous charitable, civic and other boards and commissions and currently serves as a member of the Maricopa County Commission on Trial Court Appointments.

Dianne McCallister is a Government Relations Specialist at Public Policy Partners, LLC. She joined the Public Policy Partners, LLC team in 2008. During her tenure at Public Policy Partners, LLC, she has lobbied on behalf of a number of Fortune 500 companies and government entities. She has helped draft and pass numerous pieces of legislation. She has a vast array of expertise including, health care, energy, technology, pharmaceuticals, retirement, economic development, as well as, financial and municipal issues. She works closely with our clients to develop legislative strategies, identify bills throughout the session that would impact clients, and lobby the issues. Ms. McCallister received her Bachelor of Science in Economics, with a supplemental major in Law and Society from New Mexico State University. She is the former President of the Board of Directors for Downtown Urban Community Kids, a Christian non-profit organization.

Lisa West is the Director of Administration at Public Policy Partners, LLC and over sees the development of the Business 2 Government (B2G) and Procurement Partners (P2) divisions of Public Policy Partners, LLC. Ms. West joined the P3 family in 2010. She also handles the business operations, human resources and accounting for all of the P3 family of companies. Prior to joining P3, she was the Director of Operations and Financial Services for Apex Media. During her tenure with Apex Media, she was instrumental in the acquisitions and integrations of several companies under Cross MediaWorks, one of the largest independent media service firms in the United States. She brings many years of business and employee management to the P3 team. Ms. West has successfully owned and operated two companies.

