NETWORKING EVENT

Interested in expanding your networking opportunities?

AzASLA provides a "Network Event" option that allows you to coordinate with the Chapter on an event that will allow you to network with current and prospective members and alliances. These events range from a reception at the Desert Botanical Garden, roof top deck or garden happy hour mixer, public awareness event, advocacy event, student mixer/mentor program event, community involvement projects (pro-bono work), volunteer events, landscape architecture month event, emerging professionals mixer, and many more!

We will take care of all of the details, announcements, appropriate foods for the event depending on your budget and selection. Contact Karla Hunt, khunt@j2design.us to learn more about this great opportunity. Networking events can be collaborative or exclusive.....email for more information and to set up a meeting to discuss further.

COMMUNICATIONS

WEBSITE

The AzASLA website, www.azasla.org, is the primary point of contact and communication for the chapter. A sponsor logo and website link can only be provided on the AzASLA website annually with the pre-set packages listed on page 6.

WEBSITE | firm listing (for members only) Must have a Registered Landscape Architect license

Firm listing tab that provides your firm's contact information listed for a nominal annual fee (1/1/2017 – 12/31/2017).

MESQUITE JOURNAL

The Mesquite Journal is the Chapter's scholarly publication that offers exploration of ideas and challenges central to the contemporary practice of landscape architecture in Arizona. Besides scholarly features, the journal includes more in-depth coverage of chapter events than the Chapter's website or E News Blast newsletter. The journal is issued once a year, in printed format in the Spring focusing on the Chapter's Annual Awards Program. The estimated number of people receiving the journal is 350 – 400 per issue including State and Local Government Representatives.

Advertisers shall provide camera ready artwork matching the exact dimensions of the selected ad size in jpeg format. Prices are for color listings.
